

this nation is divided. it is not wise for sinclair to antagonize half of the country by showing this film. my family will not buy any products from the companies advertising until this film is pulled. showinf farenheit 9/11 or stolen honor is not news. they are one sided and you know that